

Social Impact Investing

Macquarie Group Foundation

- Macquarie Group Foundation is piloting a small number of social impact investments, to increase the impact and sustainability of our community efforts
- These impact-first, catalytic capital investments seek to address social needs in employment, to help address market failures
- Our social impact investments focus on breaking down systemic barriers to employment, and building effective pathways to economic security
- This catalytic funding aims to be patient, risk-tolerant and flexible
- Financial investment of A$500,000+
