

Macquarie Group Foundation grantmaking: Breaking down barriers to employment

Addressing challenges towards employment in Asia

Mismatch in skills, education and employers' expectations

Quality and accessibility of education

Barriers faced by vulnerable groups due to digitalisation

Migration and mobility risks

For the following target groups

Young people (15-24 years)

Women

Underserved minorities

For the purpose of

Bridging the gaps between job seekers' current skills and education levels and the job market's expectations and needs

Grantmaking prioritisation framework in Asia

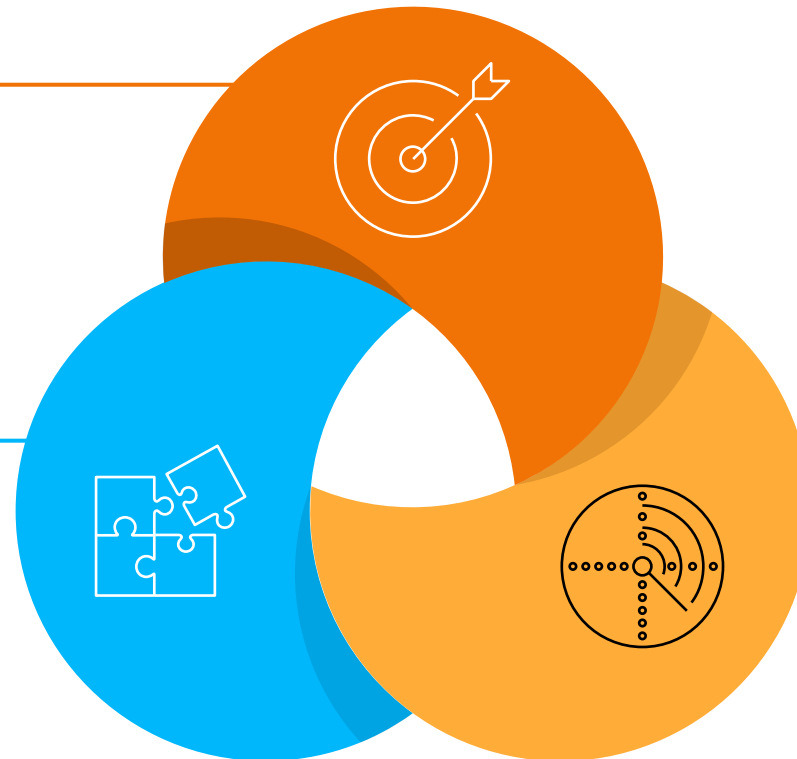

The prioritisation process of selecting our grant partners follows a structured approach based on the degree of alignment between these three components:

Goals

Bridging the gaps between job seekers' current skills and education levels and the job market's expectations and needs

Challenges

- Mismatch in skills, education and employers' expectations
- Quality and accessibility of education
- Barriers faced by vulnerable groups due to digitalisation
- Migration and mobility risks

Target Groups

- Young people (15-24 years)
- Women
- Underserved minorities